Buffalo, N.Y. 14 September, 1969.

Dear Ken:

Now have some information that may be of interest to you, regarding some of the Ackermans in Canada. I don't know how your U.E.L. records are set up but this may change them a little.

I am sure that you are aware of the fact that the author of "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte" was mixed up regarding data for Edward Ackerman on page 117. Who was actually born May 2, 1783, when the war was over. However his basic concept of the family being Loyalists is no doubt correct, but needs some documentation to prove it.

The real story, as I now see it, is that his father (Hendrick) or Henry (A516a) born 1756, was the actual Loyalist who went to Canada at the peace, along with his two sisters that were married to Peter and Abraham RUTAN.

Some of Henry's children later returned to New Jersey to live and one Gerrit H. Ackerman born Sept. 1, 1797 in Canada went to N.J., was married and had three children born there and then returned to Canada. Most researchers, including myself for a while, assumed that he was coming to Canada for the first time. Henry and his wife Rebekke Halenbeek returned to N.J. in their old age to live with a daughter.

I understand that there are old church records, that have never been published, in Napanee, Ont., at the Trinity United Church and at the Grace United Church. Could you get one of your workers to check out their baptismal Registers, which may have the verification that we both need?

Enclosed are copies of record work sheets for Henry and his children. Would appreciate knowing what you find at Napanee.

Best Regards,

Bill

Henry - Canada

After a couple of years study, I believe as you suggested, that Henry (Hendrick b. 1756) went to Canada in 1783 with his sisters, Margiretje b. 1741, who m. Abraham W. Rutan and Jannetje b. 1751, who m. Peter Rutan.

Hendrick was living behind the British lines in Bergen, N.J. and had only his first two children bn. in Bergen. The others no doubt were born in Canada.

The Ackermans that were married by Rev. Robert McDowell at Fredericksburgh, Ont., were all from his family. The only question is Margaret Ackerman of Adolphustown who m. Leonard W. Meyers of Sidney, April 14, 1793, she might have been his oldest sister(2nd m.)but more prob. since shown as "spinster". I have no documentation for this yet.

This family apparently did a lot of travelling back to U.S. and the sons Edward & Gerrit were married in Bergen with the latter living there for a while, his first three children born there, then he returned to Canada.

The parents Henry and Rebekke Halanbeek returned to English Neighborhood, N.J. area and apparently joined one of the daughters there.

I hope someday to find the church records from the Fredericksburgh and Napanee, Ont., which should give us some proof. This will mean a trip as I get no co-operation from that section of Canada. There may also be some records in Kingston, Ont.

Henry was not rich and lost little or nothing in the war so had no basis for any claim as a Loyalist.

James - Canada

Here is my still undocumented theory on another Ackerman family in Canada. The frequently mentioned James Ack. and his son and grandson, both named James, I believe started with James Sr. being b. 1761.

This fellow shows up with a grant of land in Fredericksburgh in 1801, and in records of Lennox County in 1828 and in Adolphustown in 1829. His son James Jr. b. 1791, shows in 1851 census at Camden (Two?). His descendants even today, live in Napanee, Selby, Strathcona, Wilton, etc. Another branch that I have heard from is in Manitoba, Canada.

This James b. 1761 comes from a Loyalist family or at least divided. His brother Dirk went to Nova Scotia at the peace, James was living behind the British lines in Bergen, N.J., when he married Betje Belser on Nov. 27, 1782. I think that he went with Henry in the Van Alstine Party to Upper Canada and that (Jacobus)James' sister Marrlegrietie, b. 1763, went with them and that she is the Margaret who Rev. MacDowall married to Leonard W. Meyers on April 14, 1793, as "spinster" of Adolphustown.

Now to get the documentation.

Dear Mr. Ackerman,

I asked Mr. Hugh Waddell of this City, whose mother was an Ackerman, about a family history but he said if there was one written he had never heard of it.

I spent a considerable amount of time searching our library files at the Examiner but was only able to locate the enclosed items.

You could contact the main branch of the Peterborough Public Library on George Street for assistance or the Little Lake Cemetery Company. They should be able to supply you with information from their records.

Dear Sir -

I have heard that an Acherman family who were prominent merchants in Peterborough, had written a family history going back to about 1785 when their ancestors came to Ontario from New York.

I would greatly appreciate any help that you can give me, to get a copy of the publication or to locate a descendant of this family to contact. Will you please also give me the address of the Library so that I may try them.

Surprise

Eden, N. H.

Sept. 17. 1869

Dear "Cousin" Bill:

Rec'd yours on Monday and decided to send what I have on my grandfather Albert. I had hoped to wait and see if I couldn't find more dates etc but will send this on to you anyway. I only know my grandmother was Anne Elizabeth Aylsworth and she died in 1875. They had no record of her burial in Napanee cemeteries or Harriston. The only way I found who she was and when she died was a clipping from a Harriston paper on the death of my grandfather.

I noted that the other Edward Ackerman, (whose father was Garrett H.) had married a Margaret Aylsworth, whose mother was a Margaret Ackerman.

These ^{two} Edwards could have been Cousins. I only wish I could go to that area and do some record searching.

My father died when I was thirteen and I only remember bits and pieces, and it was from his stories that prompted me to bring Edwards family to date.

I have not found my Great grandmother, Susan's maiden name as yet, even though she practically raised my father, as their mother died when they were very young.

I do not know anyone in the Napanee area but I'm going to write and see if the two Reverends will help me at their United Church. I noticed my grandfather was buried from a Presbyterian Church & my father was Presb. so maybe there is still a church in Napanee that didn't unite.

This is a very busy time for me so I would have had more by now.

There is a young chap from this area, living near or at Adolphustown and he has had access to records of his Scott family. He says one of the Scotts married an Ackerman many years ago. So maybe this is Rebecca Ackerman who married a James Scott. I'm looking into it. Maybe he could help me. If their records are complete, it could

II. be they would have something in a Scott Bible etc.
as to Rebecca's father & mother, James H. K. & Elizabeth Hart. When I least expect it I seem to find things and where I least expect.

The dates on my great grandfather are confusing.
Hugh Ackerman's daughter, who lives in Fergus went to the old graveyard for me. She didn't know where they were buried until I wrote her. She found the stone of Edward and Susan and she said Edward's date was 1825 and his wife Susan (without her maiden name) 1827.

A chap from California (in his 90's) whose mother was Samantha Ackerman (he is a grandson of Edward came to see me three years ago. He had been down East and visited the three graves, his mother is buried there too. He said Edward had 1827 & Susan 1829.
So I'm baffled completely. The records were all burned.

So There are a great deal of Ackermans down there who could probably fill in the gap but many people are disinterested. I have found that every man on my family ~~history~~ ^{tree} have written me giving me information and they seemed very enthused.

This letter doesn't make any sense as I'm over tired. Will keep trying to find more for you.

kindest regards,

Emily.

P. S. Apparently there was a T.V. programme on the C.B.C.
the other night. It was all about Nanaimo and regards small towns without industry. They apparently gave quite a bit of history and spoke of the many Ackermans in the area. Of course I missed it.
E.A.R.

The pictures in the two old ^{Ack} albums I have in my possession are taken by Nanaimo photographers, Newburgh, Picton, one oldy ⁱⁿ Helena, Montana but mostly the ones that are marked are Nanaimo.
There are many tin types.

Henry

Dear Lou -

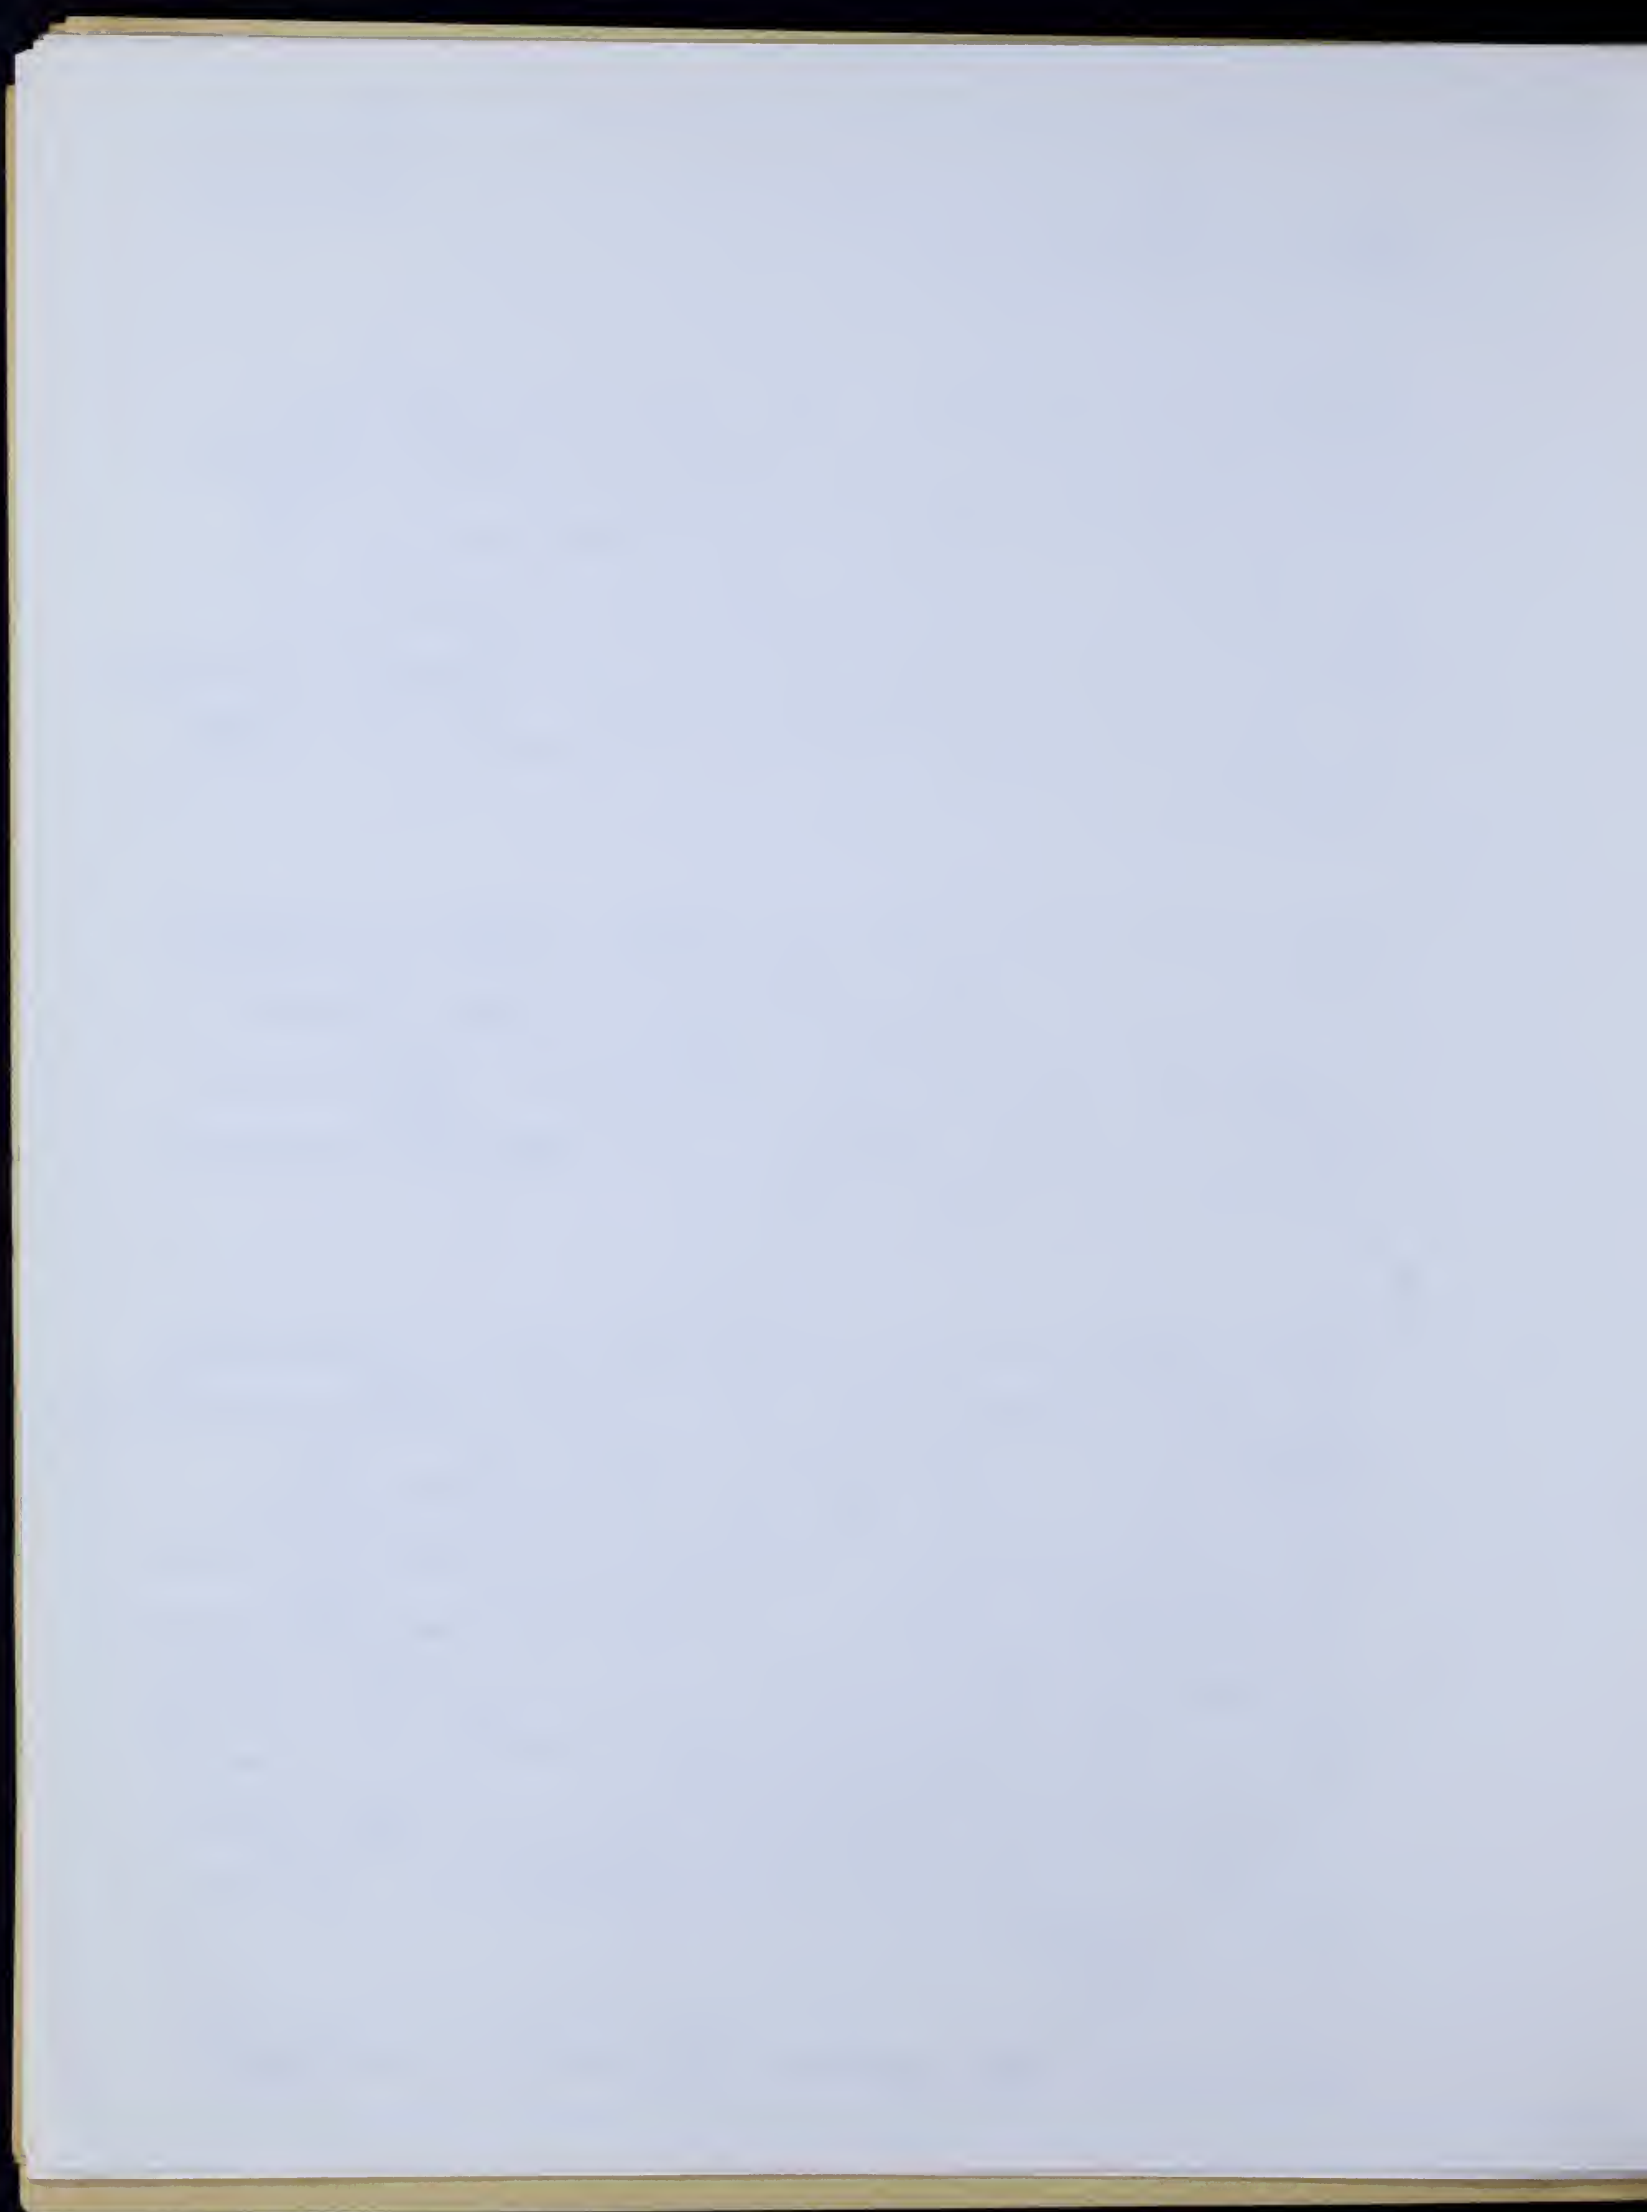

after a couple of years study,
I believe as you suggested, that Henry, (Hendrick A 516 A b. 1756) went to Canada in 1783 with his sisters Margrietje A 510 b. 1741 who m. Abraham W. Rutan and Janneetje A 514 b. 1751 who m. Peter Rutan.

Hendrick was living behind the British lines in Bergen N.J. and had only his first two children b. in Bergen. The others no doubt were born in Canada.

The Ackermans that were married
by Rev. Robert McDowall at Fredricksburgh
Ont. were all from his family.

The only question is Margaret Ackerman of Adolphustown who m. Leonard W. Meyers of Sidney April 14, 1793, she might have been his oldest sister (2nd m.) but more prob. (L 538) since shown as "spinster".
I have no documentation for this yet.

This family apparently did a lot of

2. Henry

travelling back to U.S. and the sons Edward + Gerrit were married in Bergen with the latter living there for a while, his first three children born there, then he returned to Canada.

The parents Henry + Rebekke Halenbeck returned to English Neighborhood N.J. area and apparently joined one of the daughters there.

I hope some day to find the church records from the Fredericksburgh and Napanee, Ont. which should give us some proof. This will mean a trip, as I get no cooperation from that section of Canada. There may also be some records in Kingston, Ont.

Henry was not rich and lost little or nothing in the war so had no basis for any claim as a Loyalist.

James

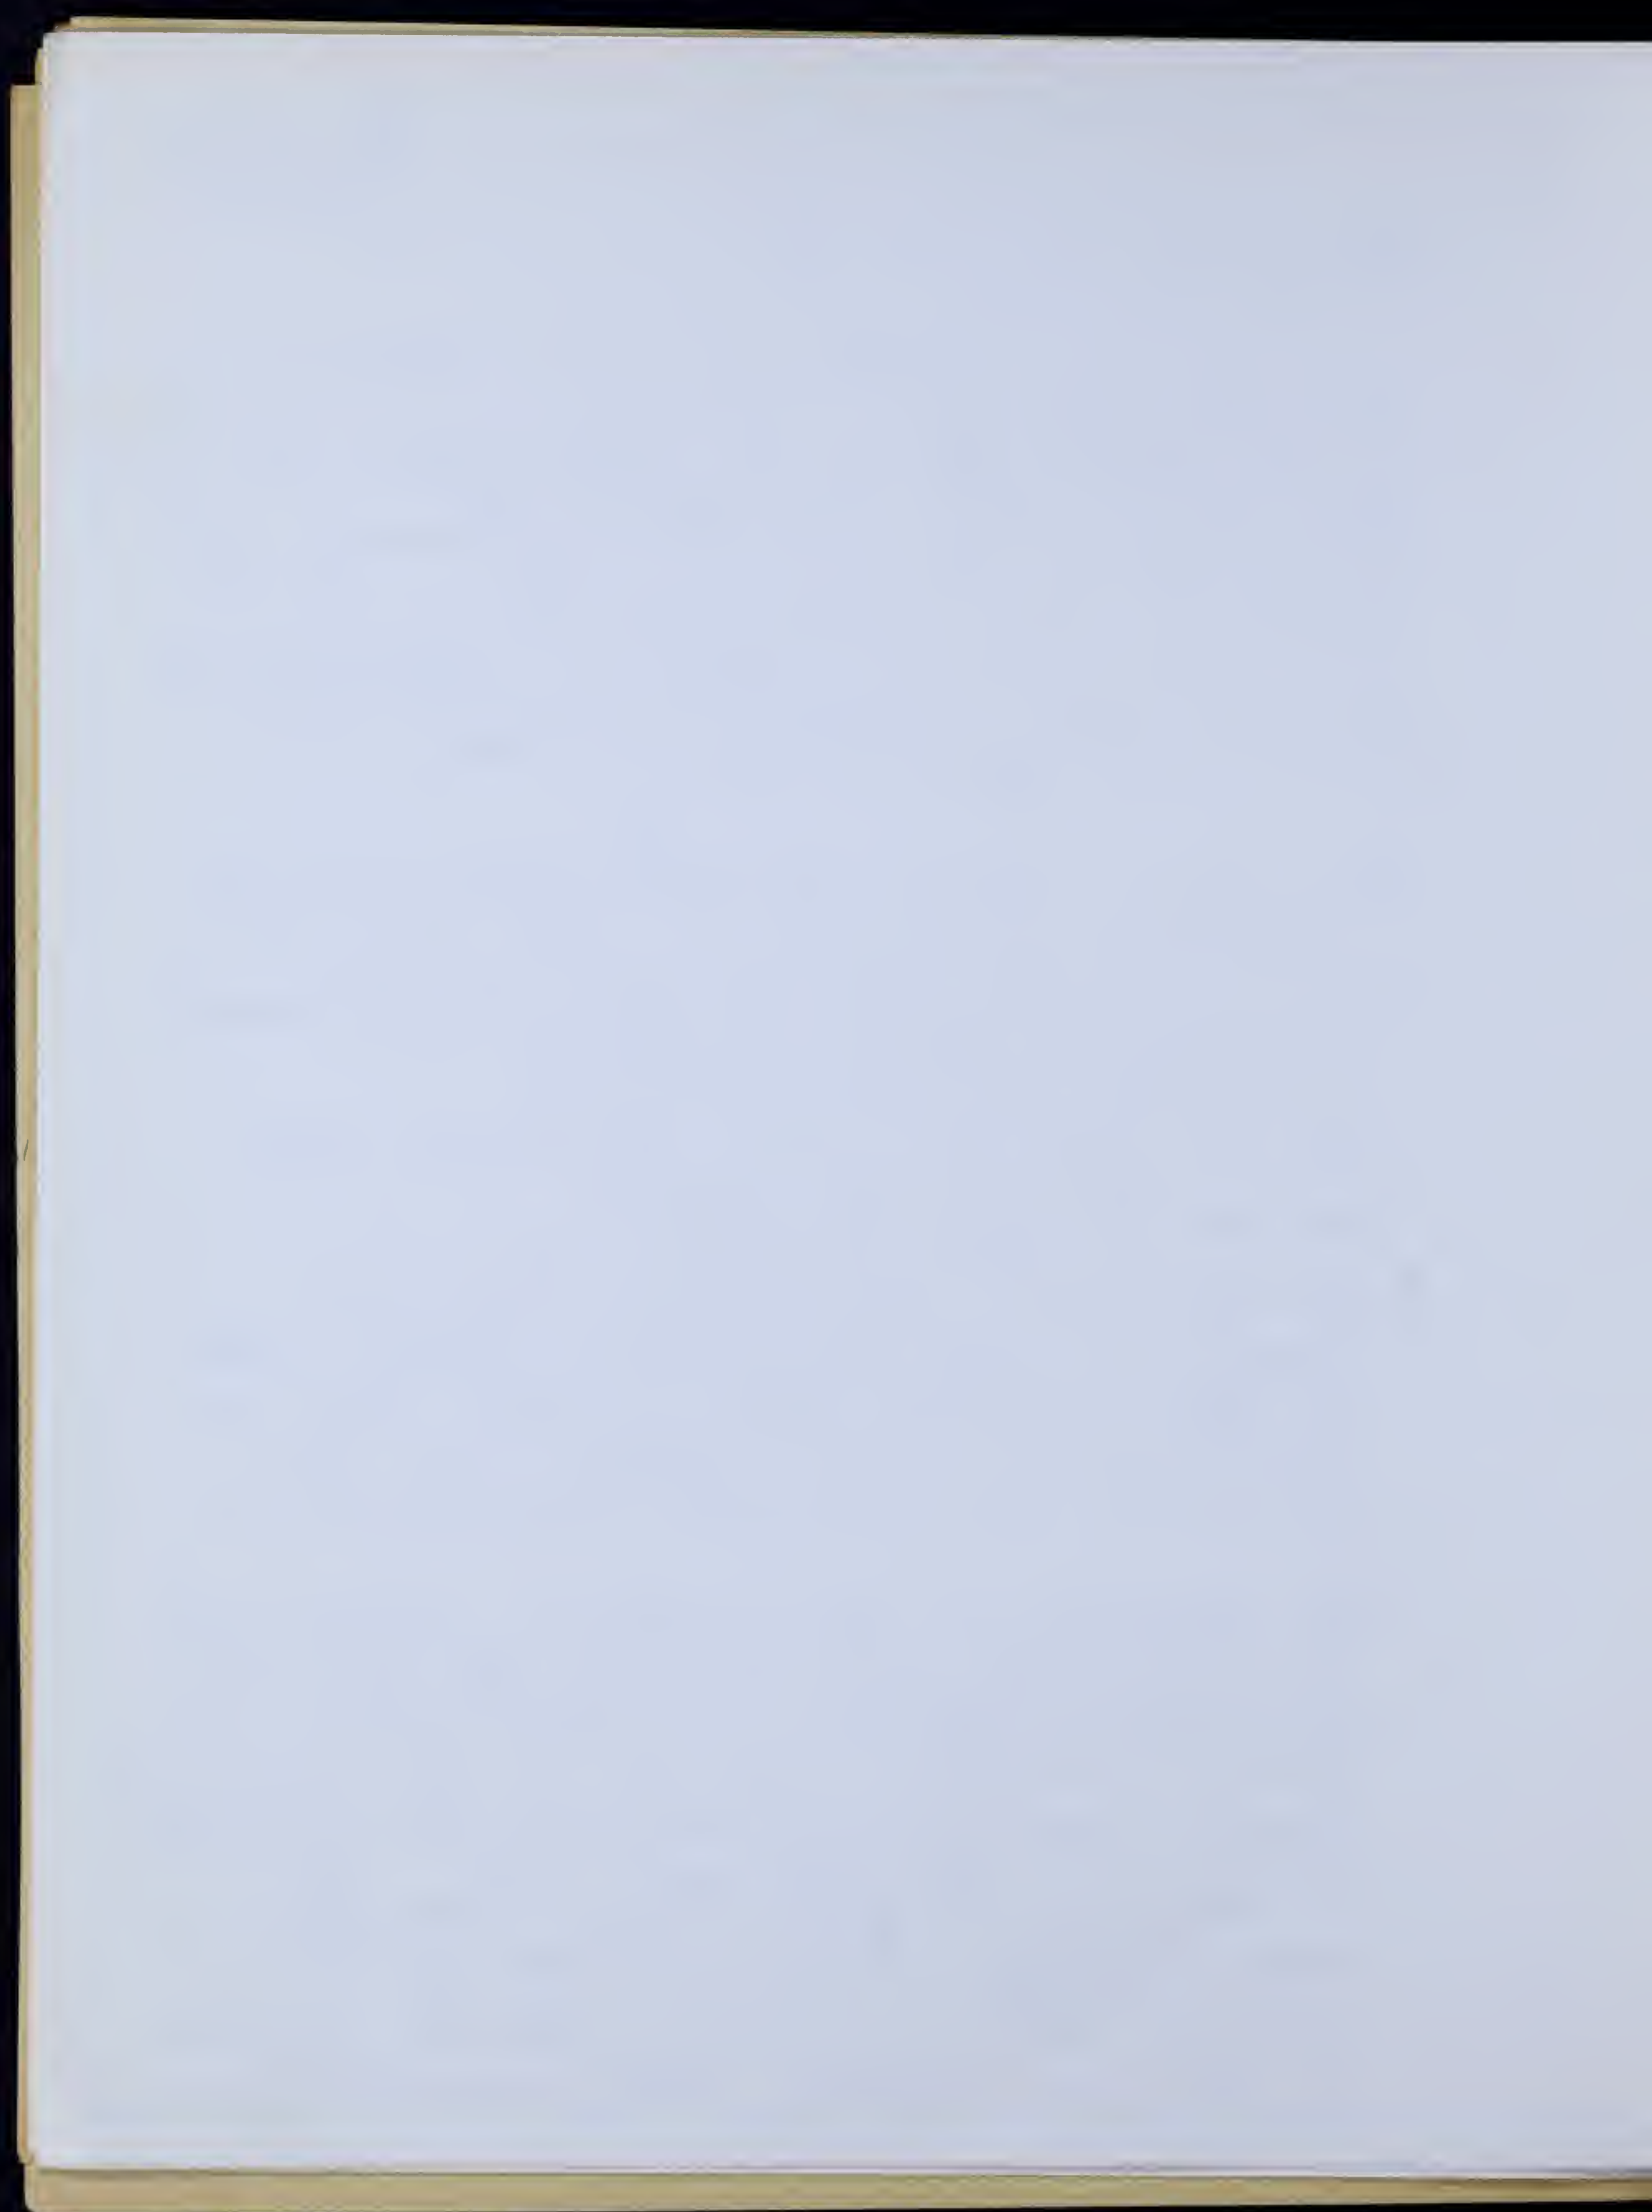

Here is my still undocumented theory on another Ackerman family in Canada. The frequently mentioned James Ack and his son and grandson, both named James, I believe started with James Sr. being (L 537) b.1761 P-225, P-214.

This fellow shows up with a grant of land in Fredericksburgh in 1801, and in records of Lennox county in 1828 and in Adolphustown in 1829.

His son James Jr b.1791 shows in 1851 census at Camden (Twp?)

His descendants even today, live in Napanee, Selby, Strathcona, Wilton, etc. Another branch that I have heard from, is in Manitoba, Canada x

This James b.1761 comes from a Loyalist family or at least divided, His brother Dirk went to Nova Scotia at the peace. James was living behind the British lines in Bergen, N.J. when he married Betje Belsier on Nov 27, 1782. I think that he went with Henry (A516A) in the Van Alstein Party to Upper Canada

2. James

and that (Jacobus) James' sister Margaret (L. 538) b. 1763 went with them and that she is the Margaret who Rev. MacDowall married to Leonard H. Meyers on April 14, 1793 as "spinster" of Adolphustown x

Now to get the documentation x

I now have most of the descendants of this family and also from Henry.

Dear Ken:-

Sorry that I have not written to you recently. Thanks for your letters and the enclosures.

Now have some information that may be of interest to you, regarding some of the Ackermans in Canada. I don't know how your U.E.L. records are set up but this may change them a little.

I am sure that you are aware of the fact that the author of "Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte" was mixed up regarding data for Edward Ackerman on page 117. Who was actually born May 2, 1783, when the war was over. However his basic concept of the family being Loyalists is no doubt correct, but needs some documentation to prove it.

The real story, as I now see it, is that his father (Hendrick) or Henry (A516a) born 1756, was the actual Loyalist who went to Canada at the peace, along with his two sisters that were married to Peter and Abraham RUTAN.

Some of Henry's children later returned to New Jersey to live and one Gerrit H. Ackerman born Sept. 1, 1797 in Canada went to N. J., was married and had three children born there and then returned to Canada. Most researchers, including myself for a while, assumed that he was coming to Canada for the first time. Henry and his wife Rebekke Halenbeek returned to N.J. in their old age to live with a daughter.

I understand that there are old church records, that have never been published, in Napanee, Ont. at the Trinity United Church and at the Grace United Church. Could you get one of your workers to check out their baptismal Registers, which may have the verification that we both need?

Enclosed are copies of record work sheets for Henry and his children. Would appreciate knowing what you find at Napanee.

Best regards,

Bill

Family Reunion

"David Ackerman Descendants - 1662", the Dutch Ackerman family association, will hold its 14th Annual Reunion on Saturday, Oct. 18 in the Parish House of the Old Paramus Reformed Church in Ridgewood, New Jersey.

This historic landmark has been chosen for the 1975 gathering because of the fact that it is rich in Revolutionary history and is celebrating its 250th anniversary during the bicentennial year.

Ackerman cousins from near and far will come together for the day-long meeting, to renew family ties and learn more about their Dutch ancestors as well as the early settlers, particularly in the Hackensack Valley.

Records show that there were several Ackermans among the group of founding members of the Paramus Church, and that the present parsonage was once the home of Johannes Ackerman, prior to the Revolution.

The nationwide Membership Round-up which is held each year in connection with the Ackerman Reunion is now under way. Any person or family claiming descent from David, the schoolmaster who came to Nieuw Amsterdam from Berlicum, Holland, in 1662, is invited to contact Samuel H. Ackerman, Membership Chairman, at 1 Rich Court, Ho-Ho-Kus, New Jersey. It would be appreciated if those making applications would send any press articles appearing in their area concerning the Ackerman Reunion.

Theatre organs: a different

By ALEDA O'CONNOR

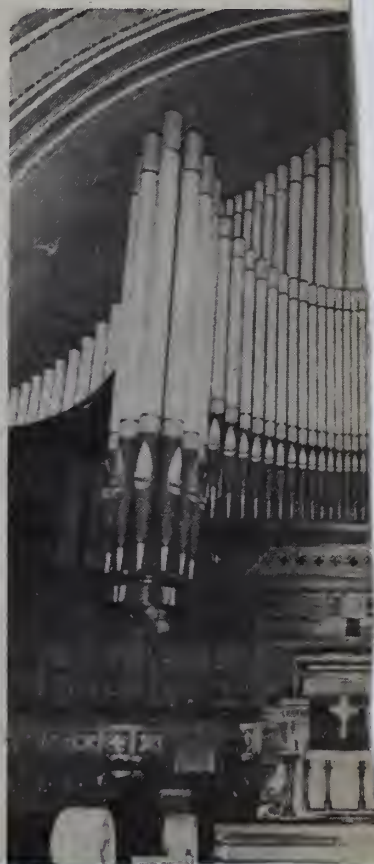

On Oct. 18, at the Picton United Church, Rosa Rio, a well known theatre organist will give a concert, marking the 50th Anniversary of the formation of the United Church of Canada.

The concert of secular music comes at a time when there is a significant growth in interest in theatre organs across North America; those organs which provided music in the palatial movie houses of the 1920's and 1930's.

The giant, ornate organs simulated orchestrated music for the silent films of the time, as a relatively elite group of talented and well paid organists travelled the country playing them.

As talking pictures became popular, the instruments were used for some time to provide musical interludes between movies, but gradually faded from use.

Many of the organs have been dismantled and lost forever, but others have been preserved by an enthusiastic group of theatre organ enthusiasts most of whom are members of the American Theatre Organ So-

DAVID ACKERMAN DESCENDANTS-1662

29 September, 1969

Dear Ken -

Guess that I did not make my letter clear. The meaning was, that the data on Edward Ack. in Bay of Quinte was not correct. Edward was not born until the war was over, but his father was a Loyalist. He was Hendrick (Henry) 1756-1849. He came with the Van Alstyne Party. In later years, when his children had all been married, he returned to New Jersey, where he died at nearly 93 years old.

I am enclosing extra copies of letters and Record Sheets to pass on to Mr. Warrnamaker, please. Have enclosed a sheet showing the identity of the Ackermans that you mentioned. I do not know Hiram Ack. of 1789-1845. Would like to have more information about him.

I did ask Mr. Maybee to inquire about getting a Xerox copy for me

of the Cemetery Records compiled by Mr. Hannenmacher. It is urgently needed to clear up the early families. The extract of the Ackermans would be a great help but the associated families are also important. I am particularly interested in Peter Rutan and his wife Jannetje Ackerman - 1751 - (?)
and their children.

Do his records cover Wapance and Fredericksburgh areas? I would also like to know if the Black River Cemetery and the South Wapance Cemetery are the same, or are they two different cemeteries?

My interest in the Wapance church records is mainly to find the baptism of the children of James Ackerman 1760 - (?) Don't know when these churches were started, but what we need would be prior to 1810.

Best regards.

Bill

Mr. William Ackerman,
Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear sir:

I have recently received your letter of 4th inst., and I very much resent the statements regarding me which I found there. I care not what you think of me, but I felt very unhappy that you would attempt to influence my old friends.

To begin, let me say that I am not an Ackerman, nor am I related to any person of that name. Neither am I your servant to command. Furthermore, I am not responsible for the disinterest exhibited by the Canadian Ackermans. I have met a few and I find that some of them consider that the world owes them a living, and that the remaining humans residing on this planet are so placed to serve the Ackermans.

And I do NOT have the Ackerman information "bottled-up," as you infer. I have collected data on many Bay of Quinte families, including the Ackermans. I have, at present, more than 800 files covering this area. And, to date, I have never refused anyone the privilege of looking through any of these files. But, being in my seventies, I do not feel inclined to spend the rest of my days compiling data for persons who are too lazy to undertake the project themselves. Nor am I financially able to hire a typist to prepare such work for anyone who might pose a query.

The early census to which you refer is one which I copied a number of years ago from a book printed in Ontario some seventy years ago. This I did for my own satisfaction, just as you, or anyone else may do, if they so desire. I am NOT holding back, and I very much resent the implication. I have never refused any person the privilege of copying anything from my files. I might even allow you that privilege, if you so desired.

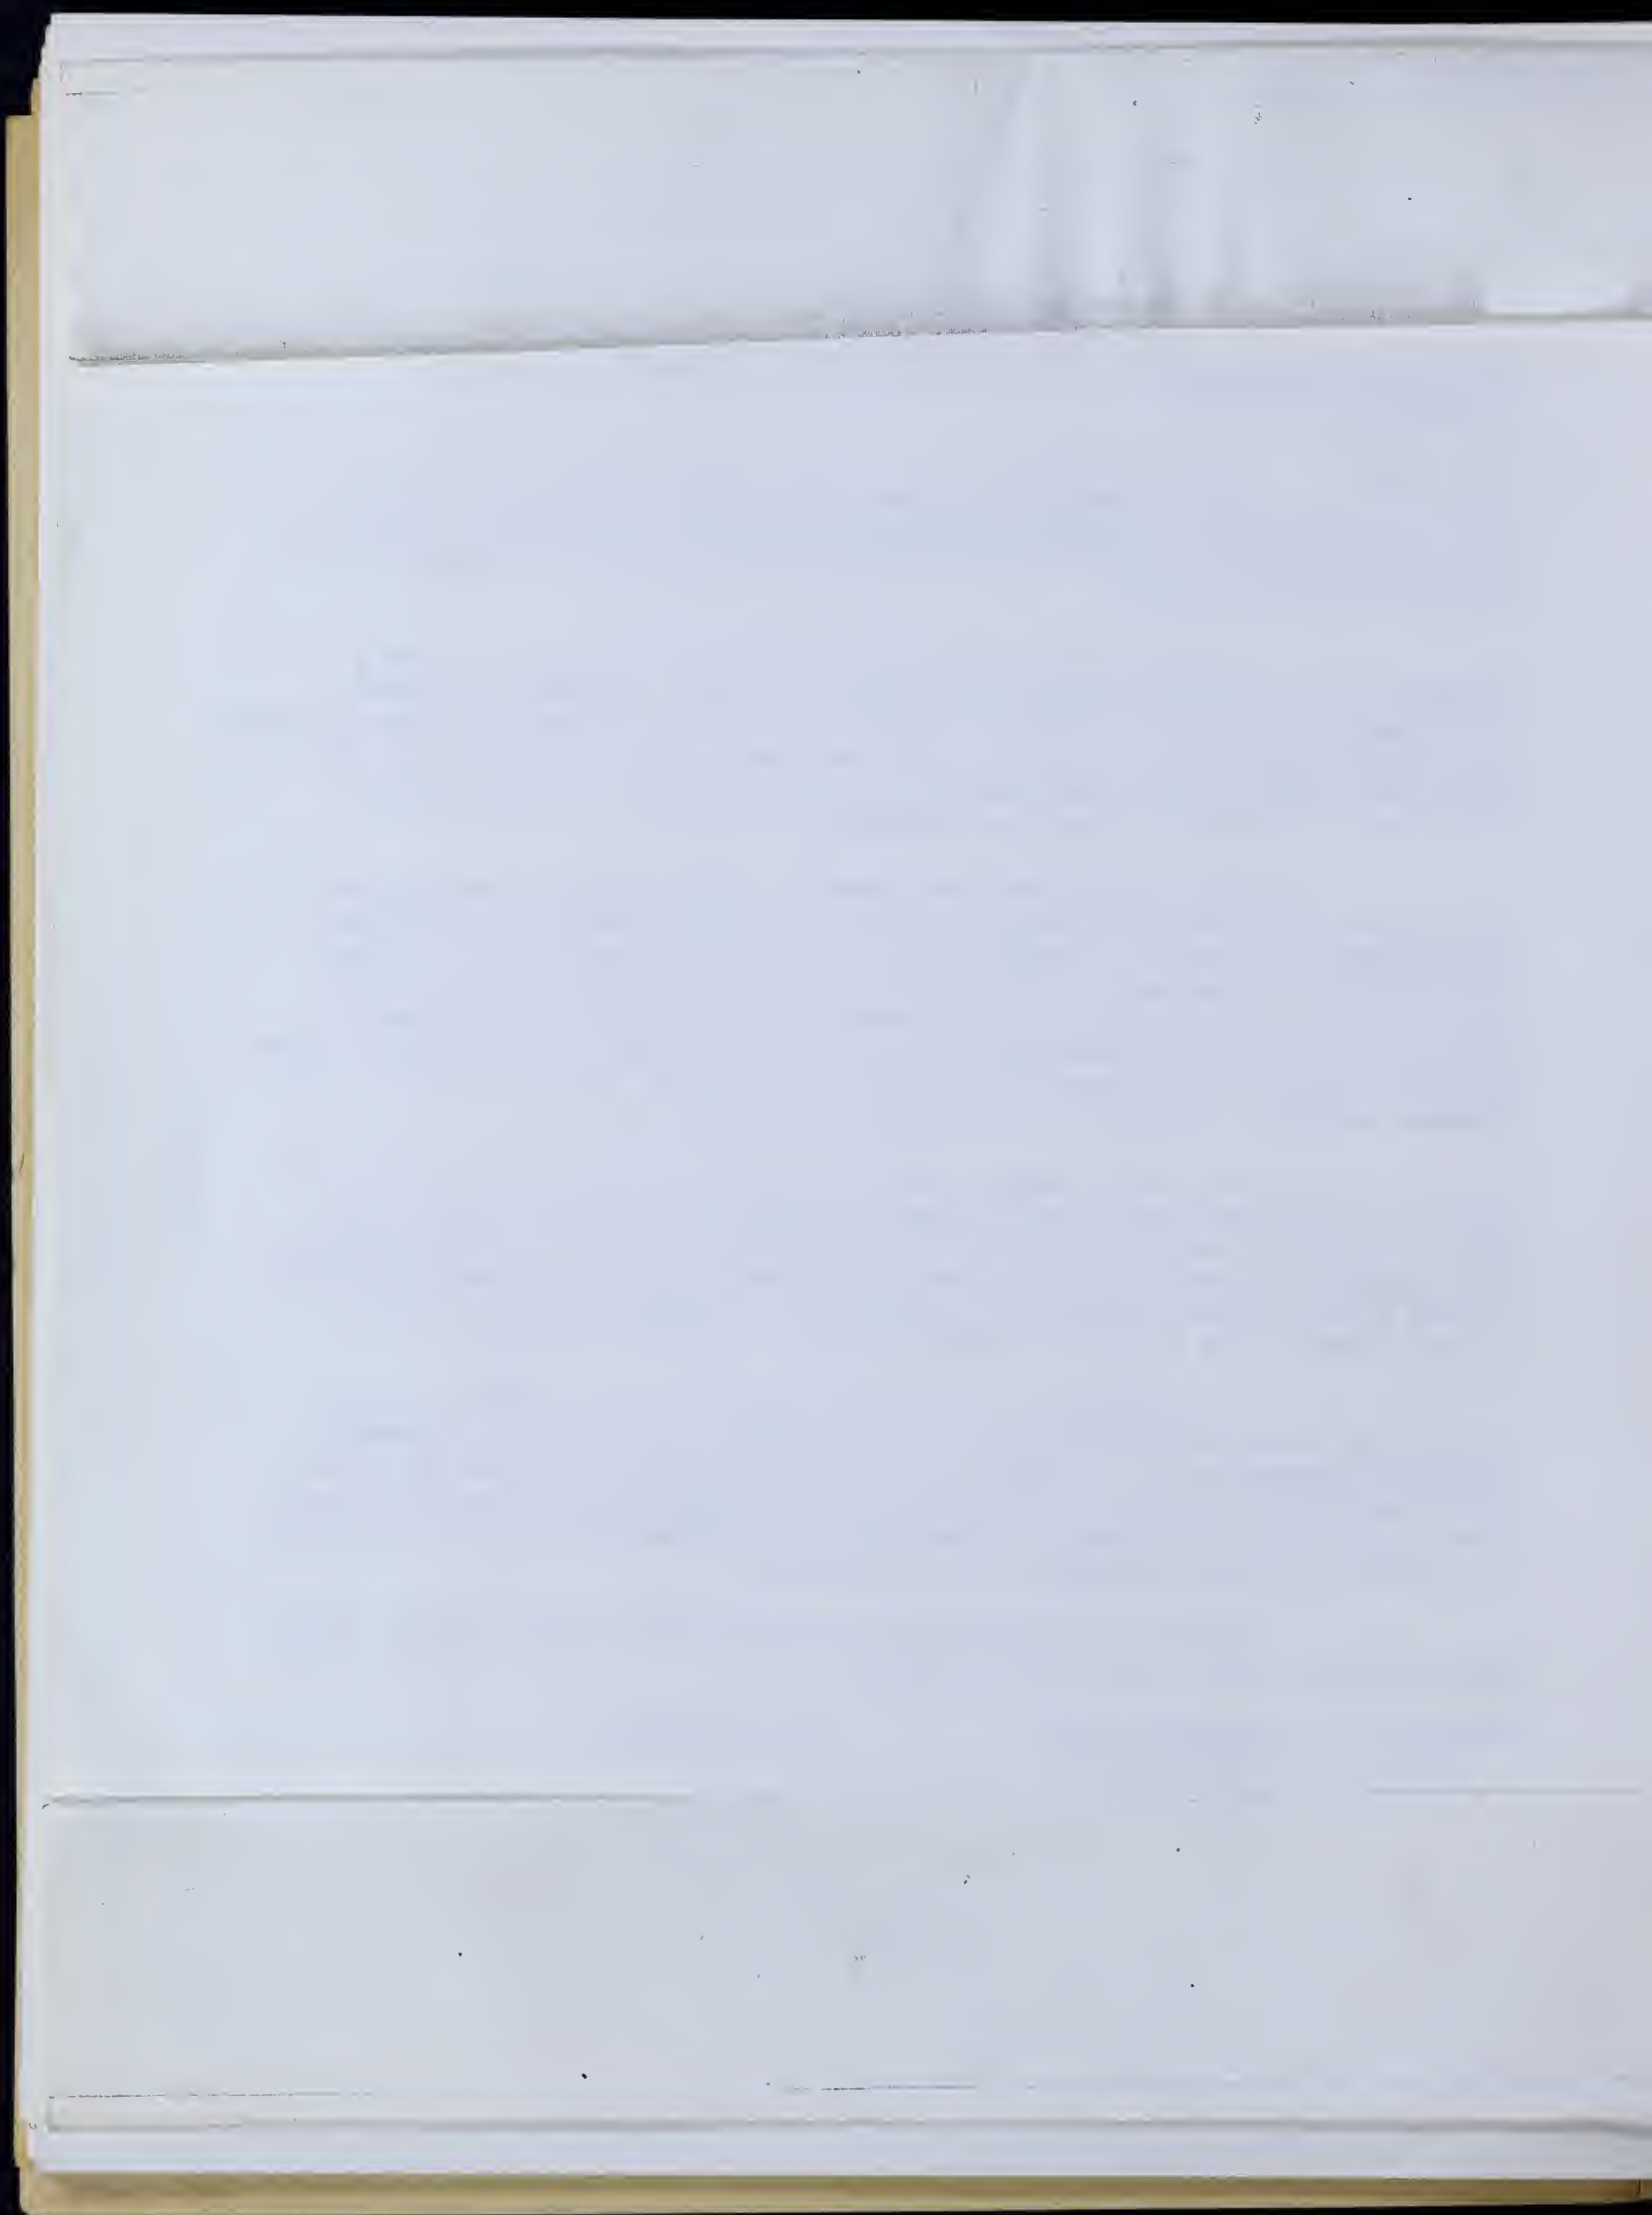

Incidentally, I am burning several bits of Ackerman data which I was about to mail to you. So, as a result of your typical Ackerman attitude, please shed a few tears in your beer. And, this goes for any of my old friends to whom you mailed copies of your sarcastic note, namely Crouse, Benson and Maybee, if they also feel that I am holding out on them. They, too, are welcome to come and review any of my files.

Please send copies to Mr. Zabriskie and to Mrs. Mills, so they may also know what I think of your letter.

Copies to K. A. Benson, Gordon
Crouse and Ralph Maybee.

Yours sincerely

Herbert (not Hugh) C.

LOOKING FOR ACKERMANS

A family organization known as "David Ackerman Descendants — 1662" will hold its seventh annual reunion in Park Ridge, formerly known as Pasack, in New Jersey, on Sat., Oct. 19. The site of the gathering will be the old Dutch Reformed Church in this small Bergen County community, located across the Hudson River not far from New York City.

Many residents of western New York State and Canada may have a genuine interest in this gathering because of the fact that their forebears were members of the Ackerman family founded by a Dutch schoolmaster David Akker Man who arrived in the new world on Nov. 14, 1662, with his wife Lysbeth, and their six children. They disembarked from the sailing vessel "Vos" at the foot of what is now Wall St., in the Dutch colony of New Amsterdam, which was to surrender to the British just two years later, becoming known thereafter as New York.

When they reached manhood David's four sons became part of an early "westward movement" by crossing the Hudson River and settling in New Jersey, in present Bergen County. They built quaint Dutch-type farm houses on their lands, and some operated mills and practiced a trade in addition to farming. They and their children were also civic leaders, some serving as Justices of the Peace, and one as a member of the English Colonial Assembly of the Colony of West Jersey.

Many Dutch colonial churches were founded with Ackermans listed among the charter members in the church records often written in Dutch script on parchment. These congregations were offshoots from the first Reformed Church in New Jersey, "Old Bergen" in present-day Jersey City.

The Ackerman organization, made up of lineal descendants of this early immigrant to America, is now a well-established family association. With over 500 enrolled members living in more than 20 states, it is seeking to preserve the rich heritage received from its stalwart ancestors and to foster filial ties with as many cousins as can be located and drawn into the organization and its activities.

To accomplish this, "DAD" Genealogist William F. Ackerman, of Buffalo, NY, and the members of his committee are spending tireless effort to locate more and more Ackerman descendants throughout the Western Hemisphere. During the past year they have

CAMDEN EAST WI

The members of Camden East WI convened at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lakins on Wednesday evening, Sept. 25, for their regular meeting.

With Mrs. R. Lakins presiding, the meeting opened by the members singing the opening Ode and repeating the Mary Stewart Collect in unison.

The roll call, "name a substitute food you use in your home instead of the real product", revealed the use of coffee-mate, margarine, sweet 10, sucaryl, etc., as substitutes and instant potatoes as a convenience food.

Minutes of the last regular meeting as well as a special meeting held in the WI hall were read and approved. The treasurer's report was given.

A letter from the president of the Federated Women's Institute of Ontario, Mrs. Everett Small, was read. Mrs. Small told of some of the objectives of the FWIO and gave words of encouragement to the branches as they resume the work of the WI.

Literature from the Canadian National Institute for the Blind was read, canvassers were chosen to collect from the residents of the vicinity.

The area convention of the Women's Institute will be held at the WI hall, Chaffey's Locks, Oct. 1 and 2; branch and district delegates will be attending.

The convener of agriculture and Canadian industry, Mrs. G. Lawlor, read a report to consumers: "Soon that may not be Milk you're Drinking". Various imitations, tasty and inexpensive, are being developed to capture a significant portion of the milk market in Canada. In the United States, it is discovered literally hundreds of such Ackermans living in Central and Western New York State and in Canada, particularly in Ontario. In addition they are finding records of entire families, living and deceased, which are completely absent from Ackerman genealogical data previously compiled.

Some of these families migrated to find more living space, but research has also shown that many others were Loyalists who moved north and west during and following the Revolutionary War. Irritated by the hostility of their patriot relatives and neighbors, they sought a new life in this fertile area where abundant land was still available.

Now the leaders of "DAD" are hoping to enlist the cooperation of their Ackerman cousins hereabouts in compiling complete and accurate family records. It is literally impossible for even the energetic genealogy committee to locate all of the families and individuals whose records are needed to prepare for the eventual publication of an official Ackerman genealogy, without help from local relatives.

In order to accomplish this they have asked newspapers throughout this area to print this story urging all persons who even surmise that they may descend from David Ackerman of 1662, the native of Berlicum in Holland, to contact: William F. Ackerman, 161 Marine Drive, Buffalo, New York 14202.

"DAD" would welcome new members, if eligible descendants wish to join by paying modest annual dues. A lively newsletter is mailed to members three times each year, and memberships are making it possible for this organization to work with other historical and genealogical groups in saving historic buildings from destruction and in preserving their heritage.

Only last year "DAD" after 18 months of painstaking research was able to prove that a frequently-visited state-owned historical site in New Jersey had been the homestead of David Ackerman, Jr., built in part before 1700. As a result of "DAD's" efforts, the dwelling previously known as the "Von Steuben House" was officially renamed the "Ackerman-Zabriskie-Von Steuben House."

Dear Mrs. Mills;

Thank you for your interesting and informative letter of March 1st re D.A.D. ancestry. Incidentally one of my ancestors was Richard Howell of your area.

Re my James (Jacobus) Ackerman, Sr. Searches in Ottawa (Canada Archives); and in Toronto (Ontario Archives); have not revealed any documentation on this man who was apparently a "late" Loyalist and therefore does not appear on official lists of U.E.L. settlers. His Land Grant (1801) would indicate this to be true. But I am still searching and will keep in touch with you as to any progress.

I have several clues:- Old Charley Ackerman (son of James b.1836); son James Jr.; son of above James, Sr. told me before he died that all he knew was that the Ackermans came from the Hay Bay area of Fredericksburgh, were Dutch and from New Jersey.
PKAB.

The Ackermans, Harts, and Bradshaws, all lived in the Hay Bay district in the early 1800's. I have a copy of Petition re land dispute from John Hart, father of Elizabeth who married James Jr. (Ackerman). It is dated 6th January, 1831, and among other things he stated he served in Loyalist forces, coming from New Jersey 39 years ago. This would make it about the year 1790. If James Ackerman, Sr. was married in 1782 it may be that he and his wife came with the Harts to the Bay of Quinte. People in those times usually travelled in family units, included friends in their parties. Would there be any Hart Genealogy or history published which may mention the Ackermans - in New Jersey? Did John Hart live in Bergen, home of the Ackerman family? If James (Jacobus) Ackerman, Sr., came to Canada with John Hart in 1790 this would permit his son (my ancestor) James, Jr. to be born in Canada as he states in Census records. The latter was born in 1791.

I use 33 years as a generation in projecting dates. I made an interesting projecting of my Ackerman line as follows:- My great Grandmother, Margaret (Ackerman) Bradshaw was married in 1849. Deduct 33 and we have 1816 as probable date of her father's marriage to Elizabeth Hart. Bill Ackerman long ago suggests 1815 as possible date of marriage (real close, eh?). Then deduct 33 for marriage of her Grandfather and we come up with 1783 which is very close to marriage date of James Ackerman, Sr. of Hay Bay. (1782) prob. Then again the birthdates of 1761, 1791, 1828, ~~indicate birthdates~~ indicate (21) - (25) - (21) as ages at time of marriage. (cont.)

Dear Mrs. Mills:

In view of the circumstantial evidence I am willing to claim James (Jacobus) Ackerman who married Betje Belser on 27th November, 1782, at Bergen, New Jersey, as my ancestor.

I believe this man to be the same James Ackerman, Sr. who settled in the Hay Bay area of Fredericksburgh Township, and who had land granted to him by the Government of Upper Canada in 1801.

Dear Mr. Crouse:

I am a member of the Genealogy Committee of D.A.D., and as such am a pal of William F. Ackerman of Buffalo with whom you have had considerable correspondence about your Ackerman ancestor, James Ackerman Jr. who married Elizabeth Hart.

As you undoubtedly know our Publicity Committee has placed many items in Canadian newspapers inviting Ackerman descendants to send us family data. The response with follow-ups by Bill has been very good. However, to date, we have had to reply to those Ackermans who descend from your branch that we have not been able to document the line back to our New York and New Jersey families.

We have had several letters recently, one enclosing a check for $3.00 to join D.A.D. from Mrs. Gladys Lucas of California who descends from James Sr's son Adam. We've also had an inquiry from Miss Bonnie Bradshaw of Belleville, Ontario whose lines traces back to Margaret, daughter of your James & Elizabeth Hart---Margaret married William Henry Bradshaw.

As you undoubtedly know we have a record of a Jacobus Ackerman who, at about the close of the Revolution married on 27 Nov 1782 at Bergen (now Jersey City) N.J. Betje Belser. Nothing further appears in records here concerning this couple. This Jacobus (James)^{b. 1761} was the son of Jacobus (born 1719) and Margaret Gudderits whose older son Dirk had been a Tory and had migrated with other Loyalists to Nova Scotia where he and his wife Elizabeth Amburg had a son Abraham baptised in 1788 at the Christ Church, Shelburne, Nova Scotia. While I am of the opinion that James and Betje also migrated to Canada, it seems unlikely that documentary proof of their identification can be proven at this late date. However, to my knowledge there is not a single bit of evidence that this James is NOT the James Sr. who received a land grant in 1821 for 200 acres which later was bequeathed to his son Adam.

The names of James Ackerman Sr, James Jr (who m. Elizabeth Hart) and Adam are frequently linked together in early records which, I think, came from you.

I would like to have our Genealogy Committee take a stand on the American ancestry of this line. William F. of Buffalo's attitude is "very possible but not proven". Quite right. But isn't the circumstantial evidence sufficient to p 2 LMills to CGCrouse 3/1/73

permit us to accept members into D.A.D. perhaps with a mildly qualifying statement? As^a descendant of James and Elizabeth Hart, would YOU be willing to claim descent from Jacobus Ackerman and Betje Belser who married in 1782? I plan to send a copy of this letter to the policy members of our Genealogy Committee before I present the matter to our Board of Directors for final approval, on March 16th.

We have really had remarkable cooperation from the Ackerman descendants in Ontario, all of whom apparently come from two lines, the second being the Descendants of Hendrick Ackerman and Rebecca Hallenbeck, ^{whose son Garret H} ~~who~~ also settled in the Bay of Quinte area. We have many records from both branches.

Our William F. Ackerman has stated many times that the earliest census for this area was destroyed, and the only known copy is in the possession of Dr. Burleigh of Bath. I subscribe to the Loyalist Gazette, and note that that he attended the ¹⁹⁷² Annual Dominion banquet and Meeting at Ottawa. It does seem as if the Dominion Council of the United Empire Loyalists of Canada should be in a strong position to request---nay, even pressu^re Dr. Burleigh to permit this census record to be copied in some ^{way} ~~many~~ for their files!

I do like to send stamped addressed envelopes to accompany letters I write to folks when I expect a reply. Some time ago a Canadian correspondent sent me some of your stamps for such use. I am enclosing a $1 bill and would be very grateful if you would also send me a few stamps for future use.

Very sincerely,

(Mrs. R. H.) Louise A. Mills
